How to get to SKOPJE

■ By plane:

- Skopje Airport has direct daily flights from / to: Belgrade, Istanbul, Ljubljana, Rome, Wien, Zagreb.
- For more details, check Skopje Airport's site: skp.airports.com.mk/
- There is an exchange office at the Airport, but the rate is rather low. You might also withdraw between 3000 MKD (48 EUR) and 6000 MKD (97 EUR) from the ATM machines at the Airport. The commission is 2 EUR, and the rate is 61.5 MKD/EUR.
- At the Airport, buy the ticket from Vardar Ekspres (175 MKD, you can pay it with Visa, Master, Maestro card) and go to its final destination. Hotel Holiday Inn. Go towards the Parliament, and at the crossroad go to the left to street 11 Октомври (11 Oktomvri). There is a local bus station. Buses 4, 7 (be careful, there is a bus 7a, it's not convenient), 15, 22, and 24 take you towards the Boulevard Partizanski odredi (Булевар Партизански одреди). The participants staying in Hotel Dolce and Hotel Monako should get out of the bus at SIMPO station (third station after the Church of St Clement of Ohrid https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Church_of_St._Clement_of_Ohrid). The buses then stop immediately after Hotel Karpos (pronounced Karposh). Bus ticket bought in the bus costs 35 MKD. It must be paid in the local currency.

■ By train or by bus:

- The railway station and the bus station are close to the bus terminus for local buses. Get the bus 22 and go towards the Boulevard Partizanski odredi (Булевар Партизански одреди). Bus ticket bought in the bus costs 35 MKD (approx. 0.60 EUR). It must be paid in the local currency.

■ By car:

- The entrance from Belgrade and from Athens is the same (Skopje East). Be careful not to go to the ring road, which leads to Tetovo. After Hotel Continental (it is a tall white building with red frames, on the opposite side of the boulevard), go to the right on the roundabout, and drive towards the Boulevard Partizanski odredi (Булевар Партизански одреди). The speed limit in the cities is 50 km/h. Be careful not to exceed this limit.

■ Lunches:

- Recommended restaurant - Barbakan Restaurant (<http://www.barbakanrestaurant.com/>). Lunches are covered personally by the participants.
